

Daniela Falecki, B.Ed (Physical Ed & Health), M.Ed (Leadership)

Daniela is known as the “Keep-it-real” teacher with over twenty years experience across primary, secondary and tertiary sectors of education. Daniela has experience in both government and independent schools, and has seen first-hand the challenges teachers face. Daniela is committed to providing teachers with evidence-based strategies for optimal functioning through consulting, coaching and training.

Daniela holds a Bachelor of Education from the University of Wollongong, a Certificate in Rudolf Steiner Education from Parsifal College and has a Masters in Education (Leadership). Daniela is also a member of the International Coach Federation, Positive Educations Schools Association and licensed user of Mental Toughness. Daniela also currently lectures at Western Sydney University in Educational Psychology where she was ranked in the top 3 for Lecturer of the Year 2014 by students.

As an educator Daniela has specialized in the area of pastoral care and mentoring in her roles as Year Advisor, beginner teacher mentor, Head Teacher, Curriculum advisor for NSW Department of Education and Communities as well as the Association of Independent Schools (AIS). Daniela also operated as the NSW Manager for a National Outdoor Education company (OEG), where she liaised with the top 10 private schools in Sydney to deliver high quality programs specialising in leadership, resilience and relationships for both staff and students. Daniela continues to work across all sectors of education including the development of NESA accredited courses for teachers that embed Coaching Psychology and Positive Psychology within education. This includes programs written for the University of Sydney and Western Sydney University in the areas of early career teachers, supervising teachers of pre-service teachers, university advisors and indigenous teachers.

Daniela is also a sought after speaker at schools and conferences across Australia. Daniela’s style is often described as highly motivating, inspiring, engaging, practical, and most of all realistic for teachers in today’s dynamic environment.