

Olivia Evans BCom MOrgCoach

Olivia Evans holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Queensland and a Master of Organisational Coaching (with merit) from the University of Sydney. She is an accredited Professional Certified Coach (International Coach Federation) and Management Consultant, with extensive and diverse experience coaching executives, teams and whole organisations to build capability, maximise performance, enhance wellbeing, and facilitate change. She has worked with multi-nationals, the ASX 200, top tier Professional Services firms, and Government departments, and across industries including Education, Technology, Not-for-profit and Resources sectors.

In both an internal and external consulting capacity, Olivia has consulted to individuals, teams, and organisations in the specialty areas of Human Resources, People Strategy, Culture and Change Management. Olivia's passion is people, specifically assisting accomplished executives and high potentials to build meaningful careers.

At the individual level, she has coached numerous executives to support the achievement of their leadership development and career goals. When coaching executives, Olivia applies contemporary coaching psychology and positive psychology research and practices; focused on strengths, growth, and transformation. Olivia co-authored the book chapter 'Positive Psychology Interventions in Practice' with Dr Suzy Green and Belinda Williams, which was published in the Springer text 'Positive Psychology at Work: Research and Practice' in 2017.

In pursuit of her continued commitment to excellence, Olivia is also a member of the Career Development Association of Australia (CDAA), an Affiliate of the International Society for Coaching Psychology (ISCP), and an accredited Mental Toughness Questionnaire (MTQ-48) Trainer and Coach. She has also been an active committee member of the Australian Psychological Society Coaching Psychology Interest Group (APS CPIG) in recent years.

Olivia is engaged with The Positivity Institute as a Senior Associate working closely with Dr Suzy Green.
