

Michelle Robbé

M Organisational Psychology, MBA, MAPS

Michelle Robbé is a Workplace and Coaching Psychologist (MAPS) who enables both personal and organisational change. Michelle has 20+ years' experience in facilitating personal, professional and organisational development. Michelle has coached over 200 senior executives and emerging leaders to take their leadership to the next level by taking an integrative approach to coaching the whole person. She seeks to develop leadership and strategic management skills whilst supporting the individual to lead an authentic life true to their values. She is passionate about coaching leaders to leverage their strengths and have the courage to recognise and address potential derailers that may arise from overusing some strengths.

Michelle readily relates to the challenges and opportunities faced by senior leaders by drawing on her own experience of senior management roles at Telstra and 10+ years' experience of management and consulting across multiple countries, industries and sectors. Michelle combines warmth, empathy and enthusiasm with her genuine desire to improve leadership, business process and people management practices in organisations.

In addition to her experience and passion, Michelle is well qualified to deliver executive coaching services as a registered psychologist with an MBA and Master of Organisational Psychology.

Michelle is engaged as a Senior Associate of The Positivity Institute, working closely with Dr Suzy Green on applied positive psychology and evidence-based coaching engagements in the corporate sector, Public Sector and the community.
